

WAPE JETS – NEW MEMBER OF PRESTIGIOUS ACA INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION

7.9. 2021, Prague - The Air Charter Association (ACA) has been a central organisation of the aviation charter industry since its foundation in 1949 and forms a global network of companies in the field of business. Now, the Czech company WAPE JETS, which provides the charter and sales of private jets, has been added to its prestigious worldwide list of more than 250 members.

The Air Charter Association, based in London, is a leading international trade association for companies and individuals engaged in aircraft charter. The aim of the Association is to promote the highest standards of professionalism and ethics in the aviation industry. Its members maintain this status and provide the highest level of customer service.

“Membership of the ACA is another important milestone in our history. It confirms that we are a progressive, trustworthy and very customer-oriented company. Admission to this important international Association was preceded by a thorough examination. Not all applicants are able to pass this examination successfully, thus we are even more pleased by our admission,” says Zuzana Petakova, owner of WAPE JETS.

ACA focuses on supporting and strengthening the best relationships in the supply chain, with its members being considered as experienced and trusted professionals. The Association is a reliable source of information for the aviation industry, proactively represents its members at the governmental level and in regulatory bodies, provides professional, legal guidance and support, as well as various training courses.

“Aircraft rental requires extensive knowledge to find the most appropriate, legal and cost-effective solution. Clients appreciate the value and security of reservations through members accredited by ACA,” explains Petakova.
